Never in Doubt.
"Does your wife ever doubt what you say when you get home late?" asked the Wise Guy. "Never," replied the Grouch. "She knows I am lying."

Bath Robe Came First.
According to some of the old pictures, the patriarchs wore bath robes a long time before baths were invented.

Thought for the Day
Knowledge is of two kinds. We know a subject ourselves, or we know where we can find full information upon it.—Samuel Johnson.

Gift Party

On next Monday evening at the armory the members of the Presbyterian Sunday school will be entertained at a Christmas party by their teachers. Each pupil will take a gift—a toy or its equivalent—and those gifts will be packed next day and forwarded to Clinton, S. C., for the children at Thornwell Orphanage of whom there are three hundred. The armory will be prettily decorated in Christmas greens. Games will be played and light refreshments served. Heretofore the Sunday school has contributed money to the orphanage and the change will be a delightful innovation, giving pleasure to the pupils and the gifts additional Christmas joy to the children at the institution.

The Florida Farmer and Home-seeker, published at St. Augustine, in its December issue, gives a clear picture of the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Drake at the Drake Point grove and fernery at Yalaha. Mrs. Drake was formerly Miss Alice Hocker of this city.

Miss Musie Bullock will have as her guests during the holidays, a trio of attractive young ladies, including Miss Mozelle Burkheim of Gainesville, Miss Geraldine Anderson of the Dunnellon school faculty and Miss Lorraine Beville of St. Petersburg. Miss Burkheim will arrive Sunday after Christmas, Miss Beville Christmas eve and Miss Anderson the first of net week.

Miss Frances Tarver was a recent visitor to Tavares, the guest of Judge and Mrs. E. M. Tally.

The following is the line-up of the "Wildcats" for the games this afternoon with the Orlando basketball team: Centers, Kathleen Leitner, Leslie Jackson; guards, Blair Woodrow, Nettie Camp; forwards, Callie Gissendanner, Lillian Smith; substitutes, Sidney Perry, Louise Spencer, Meme Davis. The visiting team arrived on the 1 o'clock Seaboard and the game was called at 3 o'clock at Camp's court.

Miss Bertha Lee left this afternoon for Sutherland to visit a sister during the holidays.

Miss Louise Booe returned home today from Dunnellon to remain until the reopening of the school after the holidays.

The young ladies' embroidery circle of the Presbyterian church held a successful doll, fancy work and candy sale today at Gerig's Drug Store. Assisting with the sale were Mrs. L. M. Murray, Mrs. W. D. Taylor, Mrs. J. H. Taylor, Mrs. E. G. Peek, Miss Alice Bullock, Miss Bettie McIver and other members. There were all kinds of dolls, from twins to quaint colonial dames all beautifully dressed, a pretty array of fancy work pieces and many pounds of deliciously made candy.

Prof. and Mrs. Karl J. Weihe are holiday guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. B. Weihe, arriving this afternoon from Jacksonville. Mr. James Lesley of Panasoffkee, will spend a portion of the holidays at the Weihe home, arriving later.

Mrs. T. S. Trantham of Tallahassee, arrived last night to be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Bullock until after New Year. She will be joined Wednesday by Mr. Trantham. Mrs. Trantham as Miss Josephine Bullock was one of Ocala's loveliest girls and her visits home occasion much pleasure to her circle of friends.

Mr. Cameron Gamsby, a student at the University of the South, Sewanee, Tenn., is the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. C. H. Gamsby, arriving yesterday. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Gamsby, will arrive tomorrow from Chattanooga, Tenn.

Miss Ethel Crosby who teaches at Keystone, has returned home to spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crosby.

Mrs. J. H. Hill and son, Mr. James Hill, left this afternoon for Lake Weir to visit the former's brother, Mr. John Carney until Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Gray of Tampa, the latter a sister of Mr. Carney and Mrs. Hill, who have been spending some time at the lake, leave Tuesday for New York city to remain through the holidays. On the same day Mr. Carney and Mr. Hill will go on a hunting trip to Homosassa.

Dance by the Jingo Club

The initial social event brightening the holiday vacation was the dance given last evening by the Jingo Club, at the Woman's Club. If the merriment of the evening is indicative of the pleasure in store the school set will during the coming fortnight experience one of its happiest vacations.

Punch was served between dances and the musical program was rendered by Needham's orchestra.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Harry Walters chaperoned and among those dancing were Misses Nellie Beckham, Martha Kate and Louise Rentz, Virginia Sistrunk, Alice Sexton, Louise Spencer, Lillian Thomasson, Ellen Stripling, Agnes Burford, Sidney Perry, Ethel Haycraft, Leslie Jackson, Catharine Livingston, Theo Beckham, Annie Moorhead, Meme Davis, Louise Sanders, Messrs. J. D. McDonald, Hugh Geiger, Wallace Davis, Welsh Dewey, Carol and Joe Blalock, Richard and William Stroud, John Tarver, Carlton Ervin, Wayne TenEyck, Fred Stringfellow, Cameron Gamsby, John Batts, William Avery, Rae Ferguson, LaGrange Sistrunk, Lynn Sanders, James Bartley, James Hill, Hansel Leavengood, Rosco Meffert, Norman Horne, Robert Connor, Charles Duval, C. B. Wilson and Albert Harriss.

Mrs. R. R. Carroll and daughter, Morris, left on the midnight train last night for St. Petersburg, called there on account of the illness of Mrs. Carroll's sister, Mrs. Blanche Hannah. They intended going on Monday for the holidays, but changed their plans.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Long and family are now residing at 326 Oklawaha avenue, moving yesterday from the Ocala House.

Miss Stella Camp arrived this afternoon from Hollins, Va., to spend the Christmas tide. She was accompanied by her cousin, Miss Virginia Harrell of Roanoke, Va. They were met in Jacksonville by the former's father, Mr. Clarence Camp.

Miss Nettie Camp will be hostess this evening to an informal dance, honoring the members of the Orlando high school basketball team.

Mr. Mole of Vasey Island is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. John H. Spencer.

Mrs. J. B. Borland, Mrs. Harry Borland, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Tonner of Citra, Mrs. S. B. Brooks and Miss Holder of Zuber, were Christmas shoppers today.

Mrs. William Sinclair has returned from an extended visit to Canavare, where she visited her daughter, Mrs. Howard Holmes and family.

Miss Esther Ley of Orlando, formerly of this city, is in Jacksonville the guest of Miss Grace Brodnax.

Mrs. Geo. P. Boutwell, who has been spending some time at Summerfield, has joined her husband in Daytona.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Carter and Mrs. Nannie Carter are home from a visit of several days to relatives in Lake City. They were accompanied home by Mrs. R. H. House, an aunt of Mrs. T. C. Carter.

Mr. Bert Maloney of Jacksonville, will arrive the last of new week to spend Christmas with his sister, Mrs. C. W. Hunter.

Miss Miriam Pasteur, a member of the Guynn high school faculty, Fort Myers, reached home last night to spend her vacation.

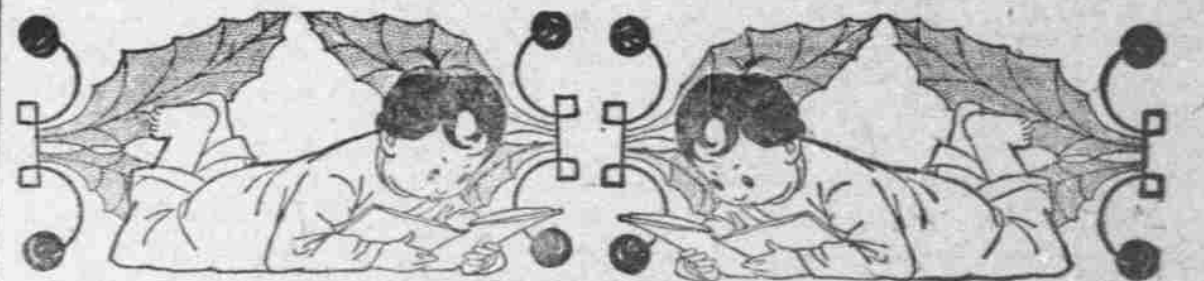

Mrs. H. W. Rawls and baby arrived yesterday from Micanopy for a short visit to Mrs. Emily Green.

Mrs. W. B. McDonald and daughter Florrie May, will arrive this afternoon or tomorrow from Jacksonville to spend Christmas with the former's mother, Mrs. Annie Condon. They will be joined Friday night by Mr. McDonald.

H. G. Akins, of Ocala, spent the week end in Bartow as the guest of his friend, F. S. Blalock.—Bartow Record.

Mrs. E. H. Peters expects to leave for Tampa in a fortnight to reside. She will shortly go to New Smyrna to visit her parents during Christmas.
